Ergonomic designed wash basin which complements any modern bathroom. This basin is manufactured from acrylic stone and incorporates a towel rail which can be used as a grab rail to enable wheelchair users to move themselves nearer to the basin. The edges of the basin are of a flat design which enables sitting or wheelchair users to support their elbows or arms, ideal for the smaller bathroom. The bracket which supports the basin is manufactured in steel and powdered coated for extra protection and the towel rail is made from stainless steel. This basin does not have an overflow and the waste is exposed.
